

12,000 People Get Real Clean with Just Launched BigLather.com

BigLather.com is good for the environment and great for your health & family budget.

Virginia Beach, VA (PRWEB) January 21, 2014

Beginning February 15, 2014, BigLather.com will give away 12,000 biglather.com™ brand soap sponges to people ready for a real clean experience — that's right, free & that includes free mail delivery to 187+ countries.

BigLather.com USA inventor Aldo Dibelardino says, "We invented BigLather.com to inspire people and have fun. BigLather.com is good for the environment, saves money, is easy to use, and provides the consumer with a real clean experience..."

While trying BigLather.com one tester commented, "...this thing makes too much lather..."

Some BigLather.com brand soap sponge benefits:

1. Produces the biggest lather and keeps producing lather as you wash
2. Saves users +$100 per year by ditching liquid soap or body wash for bar soap
3. Good for the environment – "The bottom line: not only is liquid soap a bad environmental bet, it's a bad bet for your family budget," wrote Bill Chameides – Dean, Duke University's Nicholas School of the Environment – http://www.huffingtonpost.com/bill-chameides/chemical-marketplace-bar_b_2104678.html
4. Easy to use – no more dropping slippery slimy bar soap – BigLather.com makes holding bar soap easy and hanging your BigLather.com to dry between uses eliminates bar soap slime.
5. Real clean – bathing hardware can start growing mold in just 8 days - BigLather.com inhibits mold growth when hung to dry between uses.

"The bottom line: BigLather.com is good for the environment and great for your health & family budget," says BigLather.com China Inventor Ivan Lin.

BigLather.com is a patent pending great idea that you will love using every day! Don't be fooled by copies; support innovation by buying original products – biglather.com.
